3. Winter Family Night – Carissa
 - a. Blue Harbor offers a school fun night. When I called to inquire, there were only 2 dates left available. I chose Thursday, January 24th, 2019 as it is the closest to when we usually have this (normal date would be Friday, January 25th).
 - b. Anyone who purchases a ticket can use the waterpark from 4:00 – 9:00 pm
 - c. Swimmer price is $8 – Spectator price is $5 (normal price $14/$10) – can sell the tickets for more to make this a small fundraiser if we decide
 - d. Must have a minimum of 100 people to get this rate, maximum of 400.
 - e. Vouchers will be given to the school – we collect the money, then make one payment to Blue Harbor, based on the number of vouchers we sold.
 - f. Fee for difference if we don't meet 100
4. JamborBEE – Dean
 - a. JamborBee is scheduled for June 5th.
 - b. Meeting tomorrow morning – a couple new events plans
 - c. This is all still being planned out; Due to so many changes on the grounds and less space available, and also construction equipment still around, a lot of changes have to occur.
 - d. Carissa will get Sign-Up genius set up next week for 1:15 – 3:15 time slots – will mimic last year and ask for 30 volunteers.
 - e. Officer Brent Vreeke will again volunteer his time and be in the dunk tank – this is always popular with the kids
 - f. Will also ask Sara Landgraf to put link on Facebook page also for additional volunteers to have access to sign-up

5. Treasurers Report – Nicole S.
 - a. Deposits made from sock hop – see details in item #2 above
 - b. Disbursements for babysitting from April meeting, photo booth, sock hop supplies, teacher appreciation.
