

SUMMER READING PROGRAM

HOW IT WORKS: Track the hours you read or listen to books and become eligible for prizes along the way. The program is FREE.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE: Students entering grades 6-12 this fall.

WHAT TO READ: Books, audiobooks and graphic novels.

HOW TO JOIN: Register beginning May 1 using Beanstack (download the Beanstack app, or visit www.meadpl.org for desktop access) and record your reading time starting May 27. A library card is required to join. SASD students can also use their Virtual Library Cards (more details at www.meadpl.org/virtual-card).

TRACK YOUR PROGRESS: Receive credit for the time you spend reading from May 27-Aug. 8 using Beanstack. Aug. 8 is the last day to record your reading time.

PRIZES: For every 5 hours of reading, you'll earn tickets that can be redeemed online for entries in a prize drawing of your choice. Read up to 30 hours over summer to have your name entered 6 times.

Prizes include an art kit, Nintendo OLED Switch, Kindle Fire HD and Xbox Series S.
