Teacher Work Day - No Students

All students are expected to attend their classes.

- Attendance will not be taken for study hall. Students who are in the building should be in their study hall.
- It should be noted that district buses will be running during their normal after school times on these days, except the last day of school. The last day of school is a district-wide early out for students.
- Students who depend on district buses or have later practices may stay in our supervised commons area or supervised library in the afternoon.
