In partnership with the Sheboygan Area School District, Shoreline Metro offers a free ride program for students actively enrolled and attending a school within the district and the public transit system service area. The program began with the 2018-2019 school year.

Students simply show the driver the special bus pass when boarding to receive the free ride (middle school and high school students only). Faculty and staff are also permitted to use this program by showing proper ID when boarding the bus. Elementary students do not need a pass.

- Weekdays from 5:15 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. on weekdays, the SASD Bus Pass is required for all students, faculty and staff.
- Weekdays after 5:15 p.m. and Saturdays, students must apply for and request Student Punch Cards (via application available at the Shoreline Metro Customer Service Office) to ride at no-charge. Faculty and staff may show their SASD ID badge to ride at no-charge.
