

THE ACTOR IN YOU: THEATER WORKSHOPS FOR ALL AGES

— DISCOVER - DREAM - ACCOMPLISH —

The Actor in You Series is designed to help young people discover their unique voice as a performer by exploring literacy skills, life skills, and stage skills.

Classes will be held on Saturdays at the UWGB Sheboygan Campus University Theatre.

SESSION 1: EACH SATURDAY, MARCH 5 - APRIL 2

SESSION 2: EACH SATURDAY, APRIL 23 - MAY 21

LEVEL 1

Grades pre-K & Kindergarten

Saturday Mornings
10:00am - 10:30am

$5 for each
30 minute session
(Preregistration required)

Beloved children's books serve as the inspiration for our adventures each session. Using mind, voice, body, and imagination, through creative play, the youngest performers will take the first steps toward building budding stage skills all while strengthening their ability to focus, cooperate with others, and solve problems.

LEVEL 2

Grades 1-2

Saturday Afternoons
12:00pm - 12:45pm

$45 (5 sessions)

Open a mysterious treasure trunk to discover what will inspire each day's interactive adventure. Students work together as an ensemble to create characters, overcome exciting dramatic challenges, and embark on an epic adventure while assembling a short retelling of our 4 session long adventure to be shared with parents at an informal performance on the last day of the class.*

LEVEL 3

Grades 3-5

Saturday Afternoons
1:00pm - 2:00pm

$50 (5 sessions)

Explore theater for the first time or take your performing skills to the next level as we explore ways to build character onstage. This level will begin to explore professional acting techniques applied to scenes that will be performed for parents at an informal performance on the last day of the class.*

LEVEL 4

Grades 6-9

Saturday Afternoons
2:30pm - 3:30pm

$50 (5 sessions)

This small group acting class will meet the performer at their level, pairing them up with another student to apply professional acting methods to a scene that will be performed for parents at an informal performance on the last day of the class.*

ADVANCED

Grades 10-12 and Adults
(by audition)

Saturday Afternoons
4pm - 5pm

This small group of experienced performers will explore scenes selected to challenge each individual and help them advance their skills to the next level.

Scenes will be performed in an informal public location TBD.

More information and registration at www.DareToDreamTheatre.com

*There may be an additional opportunity to perform this selection at the Student Theater Celebration in June 2022.

NOTE: These classes are taking place in-person and Dare to Dream Theatre will be following recommended public health guidelines for in-person programming, including requiring students and teachers to wear masks at all times. For more information and the latest updates please visit our website www.DareToDreamTheatre.com/health

(This is not a school-sponsored activity and the Sheboygan Area School District does not approve, support, or endorse this program/activity.)